OCDCA Board Members Recognized

Ohio Community Development Corporation Association recognizes its Board members

On August 8, 2012, Ohio Community Development Corporation Association Board members were recognized for their leadership, dedication, and commitment to the organization at the OCDCA retreat. Our own Homes on the Hill Executive Director and President of the OCDCA Stephen Torsell received the Executive Leadership Award. Following him was Vice President Don Corley, receiving the Outstanding Executive Officer Award; and Secretary Beth Long, receiving the Outstanding Board Member Award. Other board members include Treasurer Al Norris and member Dave Salucci.

Coming off of this exciting retreat, the OCDCA is looking forward to its 28th Annual Conference, "Cleveland: Rockin' Revitalization," in Cleveland OH, October 4-5, 2012.

Congratulations to all recipients!!!
